

HLAA Madison Chapter Virtual Meeting

November 17, 2020

6pm to 8pm

Fire Safety and Injury Prevention

Including

Escape Planning, Fire Safety Devices, Falls, and Calling 911

Ever thought about what you would do if faced with a fire in your home? How would you communicate with 911? What can you expect from firefighters and ambulance personnel? What can you do to be prepared?

Bernadette Galvez is a Community Education Officer, City of Madison Fire Department. She has assisted with Occupant Services at fire scenes since 1990. Bernadette is a senior car seat technician; an EMT and received her Juvenile Firesetter Intervention Specialist I & II Leadership Certification at the National Fire Academy in Emmitsburg, Maryland. She graduated from Defiance College with a BS in Criminal Justice. She enjoys outdoor activities including fishing, scuba diving and skiing.

This Zoom Meeting will be captioned by CART. Invite your friends!
Please note: meeting is on the 3rd Tuesday, not the 4th Tuesday due to Thanksgiving.
